

In 1889 – [from the Hub]

Young Ladies' Art Society of Trinity church was having a prairie chicken supper. Public invited. Fund raiser for their new building.

Cornerstone laid in September. Rev. Crow was pastor and membership had increased from 90 to 180. (Those original 90 came by transfer from the other Methodist Church)

Rev. Crow went from here to the Methodist Church in Gibbon and Asbury Collins followed him as pastor of Trinity until his death the following year.
