

Mormons in Buffalo County

Bassett – The early settlers who were, it appears, of influence in the settlement and who took a more or less active part in matters of public interest were composed in great part of two classes or nationalities, English and Irish. The English were in the majority and were largely Mormon emigrants, some of whom had journeyed to Utah, becoming dissatisfied and returned to this locality, the others proceeding no further than Wood River Center settlement.

Joseph E. Johnson – 1859-1861

Sarah Oliver – 1860

William Nutter - 1859
